Message from Judy, Our Regent!

It is so very nice to be a member of CDA!. We help each other, and those less fortunate. Our charity shows in each project we do. We have all made friends within our court that we probably never would have met without our meetings and the work we do. I am truly hoping we can increase our membership and funds so that we can continue to enjoy the special Unity and Charity of our court. May we all remember the special help and love Mary has for us, we really can't go wrong when we listen to her guidance.

Catholic Charities Adult Coat Drive first Delivery October 3, 2018

Donated by Altoona parishioners, Court Prince Gallitzin #2625 collected 73 adult coats, along with gloves, scarves and two dozen sweaters for the men and women Catholic Charities of the Altoona-Johnstown Diocese serve. The ladies picked them up at various churches, homes, or businesses; some were dropped off. We then sorted through them. The coats were all in excellent condition, we only needed to make a few button repairs! Several coats and sweaters were brand new or came directly from the dry-cleaner. Seventy-three people will be warmer this winter because of Altoona's parish community support and generosity! Our court thanks all the Altoona parishes (and their parishioners) for helping with this adult coat drive! Left to right Pattie, project chair; Mary K.; Regina; and, Donna.
