The 4 Types of Love in the Bible

"The Bible says that God is love and that humans crave love from the moment of existence. But the word love describes an emotion with vastly differing degrees of intensity."

Eros "(Pronounced: AIR-ohs) is the Greek word for sensual or romantic love." Storge "(Pronounced: STOR-jay) is a term for love in the Bible that you may not be familiar with. This Greek word describes family love, the affectionate bond that develops naturally between parents and children, and brothers and sisters." Philia "(Pronounced: FILL-ee-uh) is the type of intimate love in the Bible that most Christians practice toward each other. This Greek term describes the powerful emotional bond seen in deep friendships." Agape "(Pronounced: Uh-GAH-pay) is the highest of the four types of love in the Bible. This term defines God's immeasurable, incomparable love for humankind. It is the divine love that comes from God. Agape love is perfect, unconditional, sacrificial, and pure."

Where Charity and Love Prevail—Christian Love

November 4, 2012 - 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time Church of Saint Michael - Stillwater, MN

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RbeJrA8Lp3s>

Charity (or love) is defined in the Catechism of the Catholic Church as, "The theological virtue by which we love God above all things for his own sake, and our neighbor as ourselves for the love of God." (CCC 1822) St. Paul tells us that love (charity) is the greatest of the theological virtues: "So faith, hope, love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love" (1 Cor. 13:13).

The Catholic theological virtue of "love" is actually called charity because it has a more nuanced meaning in the Scriptures than does love. It defines charity as means participating in tangible acts of loving-kindness toward all others (friend or enemy) in unconditional and self-sacrificial ways. Love (charity) may need to suffer or face things it does not prefer, but it does rejoice in the truth to the benefit of others.

Charity, the form of all the virtues, "binds everything together in perfect harmony" (Col 3:14) (RSVCE).

Love Is the Greatest of The Theological Virtues | CatholicThereapist.com

<https://www.catholictherapists.com/articles/love-is-the-greatest-of-the-theological-virtues>

Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if one has a grievance against another; as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do.

And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection.

And let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body. And be thankful.

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God.

And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

And serve, you did!

And, where you led us, we followed, ever since our court's institution, August 22, 2009! Let us all pray, for the happy repose, of the soul of Rev. D. Timothy Grimme, our court's first chaplain, who passed away, after an extended illness, on Friday, March 17, 2023.

Women of the Bible Share their Voices

Members enacted a portrayal of the Martha and Mary chapters (14 and 15) in the book.

The idea came from the Spiritual Enhancement Committee of Court Reverend Patrick McArdle #448, Bellefonte, who monthly host a reenactment of a chapter in the book.

It's a great read and I highly recommended it! You can find the book on Amazon: <https://www.amazon.com/Come-Coffee-Women-Bible-Voices/dp/0578666812/>

The Vine and the Branches—John 15:4-5 (NABRE)

Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me.

I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing.

Prayer for Memorial Day

God of power and mercy,
You destroy war and put down earthly pride.
Banish violence from our midst and wipe away our tears,
That we may all deserve to be called your sons
And daughters.

Keep in your mercy those men and women
Who have died in the cause of freedom
And bring them safely
Into your kingdom of justice and peace.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.
R/. Amen

Inclusion Revolution!

Make Me an Instrument of Your Peace: A Prayer for Civility

As seen in Saint Rose of Lima's Parish Bulletin

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
Where uncivil words prevail,
show me how to model love.
Help me remember the God-given dignity of all and invite others to do the same.
Show me how to build bridges and not walls and see first what unites us
rather than how we diverge.
Let me seek to understand
before asking to be understood.
Give me a listening heart
filled with empathy and compassion.
May I be clear in sharing my own position and respectful and civil
in describing those of others.
Let me never tolerate hateful ideas.
May I invite all to charity and love.
Lord, help me to imitate your compassion and mercy.
Make me an instrument of your peace.
Amen.

Where Does Prayer Come From?

In naming the source of prayer, Scripture speaks sometimes of the soul or the spirit, but most often of the heart (more than a thousand times). According to Scripture, it is the heart that prays. If your heart is far from God, the words of prayer are in vain (CCC, no. 2562).

Inspired by the 9 Rules for Civility from the Catholic Tradition, by the Most Reverend David A. Zubik is the bishop of the Diocese of Pittsburgh <https://www.americamagazine.org/faith/2018/06/26/9-rules-civility-catholic-tradition>

Embracing the Divine Gift of Freedom: Religious Freedom Week June 22 – 29, 2023

Religious freedom allows the Church, and all religious communities, to live out their faith in public and to serve the good of all. Beginning June 22, the feast of Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher, the USCCB invites Catholics to pray, reflect, and act to promote religious freedom.

Pray-Reflect-Act daily resources can be found here: <https://www.usccb.org/committees/religious-liberty/religious-freedom-week>

"Solidarity means much more than engaging in sporadic acts of generosity. It means thinking and acting in terms of community. It means that the lives of all are prior to the appropriation of goods by a few. It also means combatting the structural causes of poverty, inequality, the lack of work, land and housing, the denial of social and labor rights. It means confronting the destructive effects of the empire of money... Solidarity, understood in its most profound meaning, is a way of making history, and this is what popular movements are doing." (Pope Francis, Brothers and Sisters to Us [Fratelli Tutti], no.
